

NEW CLASSICS' YEAR-LONG STUDY GUIDE FOR FIFTH GRADE

YOUR KIDS WILL LOVE THESE RECENT CHRISTIAN BOOKS!

New at New Classics Study Guides: a year-long Christian literature curriculum for 5th Grade.

Compare to Progeny Press and other homeschool literature study guide publishers. Our study guides are provided by the authors themselves, yielding interesting insights!

These quality recent novels are specially chosen by Phyllis Wheeler, a veteran publisher and editor as well as homeschooler.

Instructions:

In the table below, select the books for your children. All books are written by Christians and are suitable for fifth grade.

At <https://www.newclassicsstudyguides.com> download and print the study guides for those books.

Purchase the books. You can find links at <https://www.newclassicsstudyguides.com/the-books/>

Less-advanced readers benefit from listening to the audiobook at the same time as reading the book. You might consider purchasing the audiobooks as well.

Get started! Follow the sequence on the next page, from easier reading to more challenging.

Questions? Contact Phyllis Wheeler phylliswheeler@phylliswheeler.com

More info at <https://www.newclassicsstudyguides.com>

NEW CLASSICS' YEAR-LONG STUDY GUIDE FOR FIFTH GRADE

1st Semester	Choose books to make up 15 weeks or so
The Dog Snatcher by Phyllis Wheeler	5 weeks	Eleven-year-old twins chase across time and space the thief who stole their dog.	Written for boys and girls ages 8-11+
Isabel's Secret by Jan May	6 weeks	Eleven-year-old Isabel is growing up with her beloved horse Starlight on Angel Ridge Horse ranch.	Written for girls ages 8-12
Badge of Honor by Susan K. Marlow	5 weeks	Gold-rush adventure with 12-year-old Jem in 1860s lawless Goldtown, California.	Written for boys and girls ages 9 -13
Vincent in Wonderland by C.E. White	6 weeks	Vincent Van Gogh, age 11, falls down a rabbit hole and meets Alice in Wonderland.	Written for boys and girls ages 9-12
2nd Semester
Hunger Winter by Rob Currie	4 weeks	In WWII occupied Holland, 13-year-old Dirk finds himself on the run from Nazis, with his 6-year-old sister in tow.	Written for boys and girls ages 9-13
Light of Mine by Allen Brokken	4 weeks	Resourceful siblings battle forces of darkness to free their parents.	Written for boys and girls 9-12+
An Unexpected Adventure by Kandi J. Wyatt	6 weeks	Teen boys find a dragon egg on a Pacific coast beach.	Written for boys 10-13